Scams in Stock Market

125. SHRI MULE VENKATA MYSURA REDDY: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that scams in the stock market have taken place before and even after the formation of SEBI; and

(b) if so, the steps Government propose to take to prevent such scams in future in order to save poor investors'?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI PAWAN KUMAR BANSAL): (a) and (b) The existence of a regulator cannot rule out the possibility of persons taking liberties with the laws or with regulations. Regulatory action encompasses taking anticipatory or proactive steps to minimize mis-conduct and to take effective action when mis-conduct takes place. Regulatory violations do occur from time to time and offen result in market misconduct. Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) has been taking proactive measures for market reforms aiming at greater level of investor protection.

Whenever any violation of SEBI rules and regulations are observed in the market, appropriate action as warranted is taken by SEBI against concerned entities. Such actions include debarring from the securities market and initiation of enquiry and adjudication proceedings.

SEBI is keeping a constant vigil on the market and has initiated demonstrative actions wherever warranted. Several surveillance initiatives
